

What we are looking for: Educators who want to inspire and communicate to stylist the Bosley Professional Strength's comprehensive solution

We are looking for goal oriented and pro-active team players that would like to share in this mission.

Allow us to teach you how to share your personal experiences in the salon and the compassion you have for the client's trauma connected with excessive daily hair loss, while sharing the modern technology and benefits of BOSLEY PROFESSIONAL STRENGTH. Learn how to communicate the story and accomplish the Bottom Line "Sales through Education"

BOSLEY Educators are:

- Prefer licensed stylist with a current Cosmetology/Barber License in the state in which you reside*
- Reliable and able to represent with enthusiasm and professionalism.
- Required to attend a regional training
- Able to attend ongoing educational updates, including presentations and sales skills training
- Carries and recommends products in the salon

BOSLEY Educators:

- Require the ability to place product into the salon through education and assist in sell through.
- Earn trust while building rapport with Distributor Sales Consultant (DSC) and the salon.
- Prepare and submit weekly expense reports according to policy and procedure

Experience as a presenter is a plus. Personal and professional use of our products is the best experience.

Requirements:

Educator is a self- employed freelance contractor responsible for a reliable vehicle, properly insured, personal credit card for travel.

Please check out our Website; BosleyPro.com then send your resume to: Michelleb@bosleypro.com

 Exceptions; a non licensed person may be approved depending on experience and background*

 Bosley Professional Strength covers hotel and meals only*